

Dear Scott,

Thank you so much for the great package. All of my guys really enjoyed the package. The candy was enjoyed on the spot; the cigars I held on to until we had time to enjoy them. Little did I know two days later one of my guys would become a daddy a full month early. I didn't know you could split three cigars 6 ways but we all enjoyed them while he waited to go home. Thank you so much for all you do!
