Dear Friends,

Just note to thank you for all the wonderful goodies and support! I very much appreciate your kindness and thoughtfulness. My time here is beginning to wrap up but I am overwhelmed by how many people have stayed in contact with me during this deployment. This is a very personal war to most Americans. I guess because it has gone on for so long that we all know someone in the fight.

I hope that you had a blessed Christmas time and got to spend time with loved ones. Please know what a difference it makes to us knowing that people back home remember us, pray for us, and support us.

I wish for you and yours a wonderful new year full of God's many blessings,
