Good Day to the CFOT organization,

I am currently deployed to Afghanistan and I want to take this time to show my gratitude. One of my Soldiers received some boxes for CFOT and WOW I was very impressed. It's unfortunate that some us have to spend time away from our families during the holiday season. But it's organizations like this that make time easy around here. Thank you for what you do and you are making a difference in these Soldier's lives. May God continue to bless CFOT!
